NATIONAL GUARD YOUTH FOUNDATION WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ALEXANDRIA, VA – The National Guard Youth Foundation has added two new members to its Board of Directors, both of whom bring a strong desire to help the young individuals most at-risk in our society.

The newest National Guard Youth Foundation Board of Directors are:

Anita Antenucci is a Senior Managing Director in Houlihan Lokey's Washington, D.C. office, where she leads the Aerospace-Defense-Government (ADG) Group. In 2008, she was named one of the "Top 40 under 40 Investment Bankers" by Investment Dealers' Digest. She is a member of the 2009 class of Henry Crown Fellows at the Aspen Institute, a member of the board of trustees of the Shakespeare Theatre Company, and is a member of the board of directors of the Space Foundation. Last year, Antenucci helped establish a Career Development Program at the National Guard Youth Foundation. This program provides career guidance, training and job placement to graduates of the Youth ChalleNGe Program.

Erin Moseley is the Senior Vice President, Government Relations for BAE Systems, Inc. Prior to her industry experience, Moseley worked for the U.S. Government Departments of State and Energy where she served in a variety of positions and was the recipient of the Meritorious Service Medal. Moseley actively mentors in the community, serves on multiple boards including The Boys and Girls Clubs of the Gulf Coast, the Gulf Coast Symphony Orchestra, the Peoples Bank, and the Osgood Center for International Relations, and she is also a member of multiple professional organizations.

About The National Guard Youth Foundation

The mission of the National Guard Youth Foundation, a 501(c)(3), is to foster program awareness, advocate for the program goals and funding, and provide scholarships and facilitate internships and job opportunities for graduates of the National Guard Youth ChalleNGe Program.
